

APFSRM 2020, scheduled on December 1 – 4, 2021, in Tsukuba, will be a hybrid event: it can be attended both in-person and virtually.

*The meeting format may change due to COVID-19 situation.

For those able to travel and eager to reconnect in person, we offer onsite programs in Tsukuba, JAPAN. COVID-19 security measures will be in place.

For those not able to travel, we will offer some sessions in an on-demand format at a later date to meet the needs of the attendees.

We are currently planning sessions for our “Featured speakers” to be able to participate both onsite and online, by using online meeting tools.

We will update the information and let you know the details later.
